

MEDIA RELEASE

Monday 14 February 2011

Jazz in the Garden – Norman Lindsay Gallery

Back by popular demand, Galapagos Duck will return to the Norman Lindsay Gallery for another spectacular evening of Jazz in Garden.

Last year, more than 800 jazz lovers from all over NSW descended on the Norman Lindsay Gallery to see the legendary award winning band perform at this spectacular event.

If you enjoy live jazz at its very best, this is a not-to-be-missed opportunity to experience the finest traditional and larrikin jazz talents of Galapagos Duck. It is truly the ultimate jazz experience.

Held at the delightful National Trust venue on what will no doubt be a warm February night, it is easy to understand why this jazz event is so popular.

Guaranteed to sell out, secure your tickets now.

- PERFORMERS: Galapagos Duck appears in the pages of many jazz history books, having received awards both locally and abroad. This influential band has scores of original music and an endless list of both live performances and recordings. Their unique approach has ensured their wide popular appeal and household name status.
- WHEN: Saturday 26 February, 2011
- TIME: Gates open 4pm, for 5pm start.
- WHERE: Norman Lindsay Gallery
14 Norman Lindsay Crescent
Faulconbridge
- COST: $25 National Trust members and friends
$28 adult non-members
$15 12-16 year olds
$5 under 12 years
Includes admission to the gallery. Parking is free.
- TO BOOK: Bookings essential Phone (02) 4751 1067 or visit the Norman Lindsay Gallery.
- BRING: Food, drinks and chairs.

Media enquiries: Anastasia Stomo (02) 9258 0131.