

JUSTICE MICHAEL KIRBY AC CMG

Michael Kirby was admitted to the NSW Bar in 1967, serving as Deputy President on the Australian Conciliation and Arbitration Commission.

In 1983 he became a judge in the Federal Court of Australia and was the youngest man appointed as a Federal Judge. He was appointed President of the NSW Court of Appeal, the highest court in our state's legal system, before being appointed to the High Court of Australia in 1996.

Michael Kirby has also served on many boards and committees, including the Australian Law Reform Commission and the Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organisation (CSIRO). In 1991 he was made a Companion of the Order of Australia.

His lectures at the University of Exeter in 2003 sparked an ongoing international debate in Australia and the USA as to whether judges have the right to interpret the law based on its content, or whether they should simply follow the letter of the law.

An eloquent orator and supporter of the arts, Michael Kirby is one of the National Trust's 100 Living Treasures of Australia.

Justice Michael Kirby is our fourth guest speaker for 2007.
