Celebrating Children's Literature

What better place to celebrate children's literature than at the home of the Magic Pudding.

The ninth Annual Festival of Children's Literature will be held at the Norman Lindsay Gallery, Faulconbridge on the weekend of March 28-29 from 10am-4pm.

Visitors will be able to meet their favourite children's authors including Emily Rodda, Andy Griffiths, Anna Fienberg and Libby Gleeson.

A program of adult and children's talks will run over the weekend. And there will be plenty to keep the kids amused, including story telling, music, guided bushwalks and face painting.

The Norman Lindsay Gallery is a National Trust Property and is located at 14 Norman Lindsay Crescent, Faulconbridge. A shuttle bus will run from Springwood station.

Festival prices: Adult $15, Child $10, Family $40. Concession and two day passes are also available.
