

From here to Eternity: contemporary tapestries from the Victorian Tapestry Workshop

29 June - 12 August 2007

Public Program Sundays at 3pm

01 July

Robyn Cass, Head Guide, Victorian Tapestry Workshop

Gain insights to the work of the internationally acclaimed VTW with Head Guide, Robyn Cass. While leading an exhibition tour of the 52 works on display, Cass will discuss highlights & challenges faced throughout the Workshop's 30 years of operation. Reference will be made to the wealth of VTW commissions located in many public and private collections. A selection of tapestries presented at S.H. Ervin Gallery will be discussed in detail.

ABC 702 presenter, Simon Marnie in conversation with exhibiting artists, Martin Sharp & Chris O'Doherty (Reg Mombassa)

The iconic imagery of Martin Sharp & Reg Mombassa continues to reinvent itself, presented across various mediums. In this exhibition, Sharp & Mombassa's art works have been translated into stunning tapestries. ABC 702's Simon Marnie digs deep to learn more on the collaborative work between visual artists & the weavers of the VTW.

15 July

Alun Leach Jones, Senior Australian Artist

The first artist to have a painting translated and woven by the Victorian Tapestry Workshop, Alun Leach-Jones has collaborated with the weavers on several large scale tapestries over the 30 years of the Workshop's operation. He enthuses about the experience and the important role the Workshop leads in the tapestry field.
