National Trust Venue Hire | Grossmann & Brough House Maitland

DESCRIPTION

Grossmann House and Brough House are two mirror image Victorian Regency properties, built side by side on the same lot in 1871.

In recent years, the National Trust has restored Grossmann house to reflect the status and era of its Victorian owners. Gas lighting has been re-installed, and wallpapers recreated from surviving fragments. Characteristic furnishings complete the experience.

The attractive gardens at the twin properties are ideal for boutique outside weddings and/or wedding photographs. Shots of the wedding party inside the 1870 Grossmann House can also be accommodated.

Brough House can be hired for a small wedding reception, as a conference centre, as a small concert hall or for an art exhibition. The Cecily Mitchell room acoustics are exceptional. If you like the idea of a traditional Victorian home with its quaint features as the backdrop to your event, this venue is ideal.
