

The National Trust of Australia (NSW)
National Trust Venue Hire | S. H. Ervin Gallery
The Rocks

DESCRIPTION

Located at the National Trust Centre on Observatory Hill, the S.H. Ervin Gallery occupies a Georgian style building which dates from 1856, originally built as classrooms for the Fort Street School.

The Gallery's exhibition program is designed to explore the richness and diversity of Australian art, both historical and contemporary, and present it in new contexts.

In particular, the S.H. Ervin Gallery has developed an excellent name for presenting important exhibitions and programs that recognise the valuable contribution made by Australian women artists.

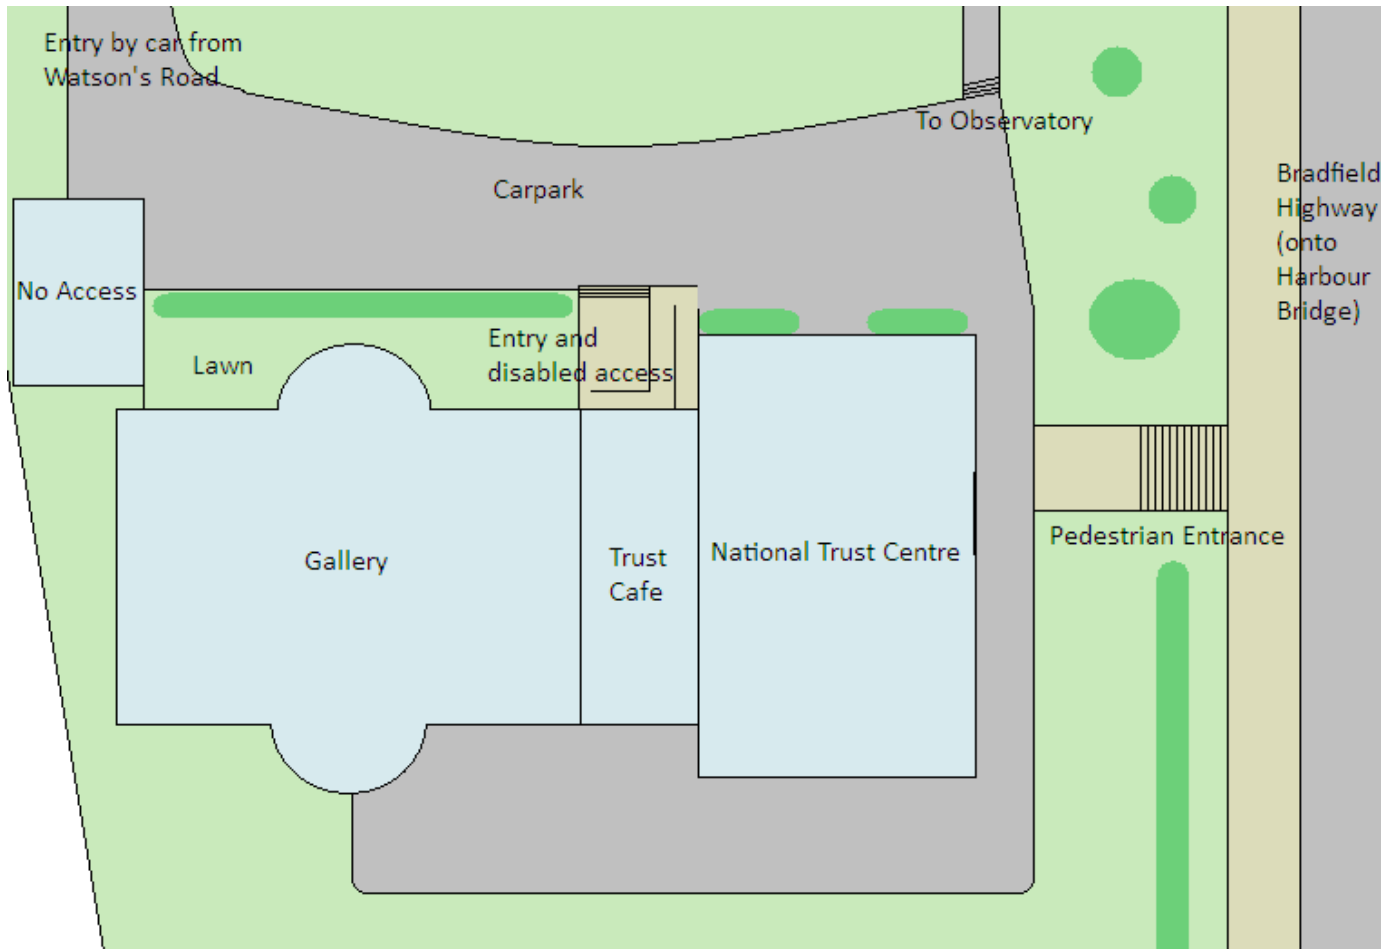

Featuring high ceilings, gracious spaces and natural light, the S.H. Ervin Gallery offers an elegant backdrop for functions such as product launches, cocktails, viewings and presentations. There is also a pretty grassed area at the front of the gallery that is available, and the Trust Café can cater for your event.

Venue Option	Capacity	Fee*	Inclusions	Other Information
